

Call for Entries 2006

Bead chain serves us with such quiet grace that it is all but overlooked. Think links. Invent uncommon uses and meanings for this common connector. Pull at the images, ideas and implications of chain.

When we receive your entry form we will send you some samples of chain and connectors in various sizes. You may use chains that you already have or you can get more from us if you need it.

Return the finished work to the Museum by Monday April 3rd and indicate whether you are donating the work to the auction. The final footprint should not exceed 15" x 15" but the height is unrestricted. Include display or hanging instructions.

Contact us at 203.777.1833 with any questions or needs. You can view sizes and connectors at www.beadchain.com.
